

year in which such income is first paid on or after January 1, 1954. Each such letter filed with any withholding agent shall be filed not later than 20 days preceding the date of the first payment within each successive period, or, if that is not possible because of special circumstances, as soon as possible after such first payment.

(6) If such letter is also to be used as authorization for the release, pursuant to § 503.6(a)(3), of excess tax withheld from interest, other than coupon bond interest, it shall also contain a statement (i) that, at the time when the interest was derived from which the excess tax was withheld, the owner was neither a citizen nor a resident of the United States but was a resident of the Federal Republic of Germany, or, in the case of a company, the owner was a German company (other than a United States corporation), and (ii) that the owner at no time during the taxable year in which such interest was derived had a permanent establishment in the United States.

(7) Once a letter has been filed in respect of any 3-calendar-year period, no additional letter need be filed in respect thereto unless the Commissioner of Internal Revenue notifies the withholding agent that an additional letter shall be filed by the taxpayer. If, after filing a letter of notification, the taxpayer ceases to be eligible for the exemption from United States tax granted by the convention in respect to such interest, such taxpayer shall promptly notify the withholding agent by letter in duplicate. When any change occurs in the ownership of the interest as recorded on the books of the payer, the exemption from withholding of United States tax shall no longer apply unless the new owner of record is entitled to and does properly file a letter of notification with the withholding agent.

(8) Each letter of notification, or the duplicate thereof, shall be immediately forwarded by the withholding agent to the District Director of Internal Revenue, Audit Division, Alien Returns Section, Baltimore 2, Maryland.

§ 503.4 Patent and copyright royalties and film rentals.

(a) General. (1) Royalties and other amounts derived in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1954, by a natural person (other than a citizen or resident of the United States) resident in the Federal Republic of Germany, or by a German company (other than a United States corporation), as bona fide consideration for the right to use copyrights, artistic and scientific works, patents, designs, plans, secret processes and formulae, trade-marks, and other like property and rights, are exempt from United States tax under the provisions of Article VIII of the convention if such person or company at no time during the taxable year in which such income is derived has a permanent establishment in the United States. Such items of income, are, therefore, not subject to the withholding of United States tax at source.

(2) The provisions of this section shall apply to rentals and like payments in respect to motion picture films or for the use of industrial, commercial, or scientific equipment.

(b) Application of exemption from withholding. (1) To avoid withholding of United States tax at source in the case of the income to which this section is applicable, the resident of the Federal Republic of Germany or the German company shall notify the withholding agent by letter in duplicate that such income is exempt from United States tax under the provisions of Article VIII of the convention. The provisions of § 503.3(b) relating to the execution, filing, and effective period of the letter of notification prescribed therein with respect to interest, including its use for the release of excess tax withheld, are equally applicable with respect to the income falling within the scope of this section.

(2) Each letter of notification, or the duplicate thereof, shall be immediately forwarded by the withholding agent to the District Director of Internal Revenue, Audit Division, Alien Returns Section, Baltimore 2, Maryland.
